At a meeting of the congregation Anabe Marrio, in their School Room, the following presemble and resolutions were introduced, by the Board of Education and ananimously adopted:

WEREARS, It has pleased the allwise Ruler of the destinies of man, to call from our midst our worthy and catesman desaulty. Dr. Solomon Friedlander, who, during his short stay in our school has sufficiently shown his energetic and an arctent desire, as well as his great shifty and preminent talents to raise this institution to a high standard, and who hy his height intellect, his literary accomplishments, his nobic character, and his love for true Jedinander, by the control of the cates of extraordinary heafth to our congregation; therefore he is Lacots, That we deeply feel and regret the premature death of Dr. Solomon Friedlander, by which our School has lost a grind, and ship to be cacher, his associators a true and his friend, the Jewish community a champion of progress and human seciety, an impired advocate of truth.

Miscless, That we, from the depth of cour hearts, sympathine with the hereaved widow and orphans of our deceased friend, and that we most fees the hard. As active the mean accessary thing is to always make a respectable appearance to pour his balm of counfort into the hearts of the mean and arghans of our deceased friend, and that we most fees the hard to have a second that country, and thus a revidence to pour his balm of counfort into the hearts of the mean and arghans of our deceased friend, and the present of the country and that a couple heart to have a second of the country, and thus a revidence to pour his balm of counfort into the hearts of the mean and any anale as reported we have a second of the country, and thus a revidence to pour his balm of counfort into the heart of the mean and country and thus a revidence to the sidney of Dr. Solomon

A Marsailes paper says orinoline continues to justify its homeidal reputation. Three days are as a work man was mounted on a ladder in the Rue Paradia, painting the sign of a shop, a ledy arouse with one of these ample garments knocked it against the ladder with such visiones as to throw the poor man down, and he was so injured by the fall that he had to be conveyed home. TWINES, CORDIOR AND HEAVY We have at all times the largest stock west of New York of Manilla and Tar Rope, Duck, Cotton and Hemp

SOTTON, FLAX AND HEMP TWINES which stood Mr. Stickell, and a young mm is his amploy as the other, while beneath both was easy jit, do less deep. The young man lest his feeting and fall, but, although he count the roops, was unable to raise himself. John Steekel —he can do withouts title—instantly ran across the chasm on the rope—not stretched and acquired like Blandin's—and anatohed the poorfollow from impending fate. We are not unformed shat the deep of this aplendid act had ever trod is rope before. We suppose it to be one of those rare and gablims impulses which outstrips and superiedd any degree of practiced will. Again we easy, with a varied meaning: "Institute its a great matter," and sure from the stage king to the "true prince." As the gladator to Garibalit, so in Bloudin to the carpuster.
